

Jason Henson's Bio

Jason Henson began his career in front of the mic at Pasadena City College. He was a Broadcast Journalism major and had the Joy of working at KPCC for the College station producing their Commercial Spots and then had the Honor of being an Intern the of Robert W. Morgan Morning Show on K-Earth 101. In 1992 Jason grabbed the MC Microphone and hasn't let since. Still a very sought after and actually sponsored MC. "Groom Valet" sponsors his Tuxedo - Jason will look like a Million Dollars when he arrives!

Jason began his Voice Over Training with the fabulous Dolores Diehl at Elaine Craig Voice Casting office for about 2 years solid. Then did some privates with the likes of Louise Chamis and Leigh Gilbert. Leigh was an Agent at William Morriss and was a sought after Director and Demo Producer. Jason's Demo actually got him a top 10 Agent with Abrams Artist in Beverly Hills - this was after opening up the Daniel Hoff Agency VO Dept with Agent Shane Cormier at the time. Jason had the distinct honor or re-telling the Dean Martin Story for A & E Biography and was the Voice for TV Shows like "The Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Model Search: that aired on NBC - Primetime. Many many commercials. Was the Spokesman for I.E.H.P. (Inland Empire Health Plan) and a voice for Southern California Water Agencies.

Jason stays fresh with his Voice with a private Voice Over Support & Workout Group run by Robin Armstrong 2 -3 times a month. And a great storyteller - being that he is a Loving Father to his 6 year old Jedi - Jett Pierce.